Who Is NAFO?

The National Association of Fire Officials is a non-profit organization made up of state associations of elected fire officials. Our primary purpose is to represent and inform elected officials of national issues and provide assistance to state associations. The Association was formed in 2001 by the state associations of California, Oregon, Washington, and Montana.

What Services Can All Members Expect?

The National Association of Fire Officials (NAFO) can assist you with the following services:

- National Issues - Assist in furthering fire service issues on the National scene.
- Risk Management & Safety - Training materials are available to all members to help their fire departments with risk management and safety issues.
- Ethics Training - Best Practices training material for elected fire service board members. Designed to reduce public scrutiny of elected officials
- Board Duties & Responsibilities - Written lecture material is available designed to help elected officials perform at a higher level.
- Email (Current Fire Service List over 3,000) - Designed to deliver important and urgent information in a timely manner.

Why NAFO Needs You

NAFO and the fire service need their elected officials to take a leadership role in developing the future of the fire service. Your voice and participation is our future through collective networking on local and national issues.
